Kurt, Jennifer and Sue,

Sorry that we are unable to attend Uncle Dick's funeral due to the weather. Since our card will be delayed I wanted to write a note to all of you on here.

Calvin and I have very good memories of time spent with Dick over the past many years. We were very fortunate to have had him as part of our family!

We know that he was excellent as an Efficiency Expert with the prestigious Proudfoot company. Since we never saw that side of him it was hard to envision him in that role. He told us that Proudfoot had the intimidation factor perfected. The cars would all drive up at exactly the same time. The whole team would exit the vehicles at the exact same time. They were all dressed in black suit, white pressed shirt, black tie, black shoes, dark glasses and carrying a black briefcase.

This is the Dick that we knew and loved: very caring, thoughtful, quick thinking, an excellent gourmet chef and bread maker (wish we could have gotten in on more of his amazing meals and bread!), extremely intelligent but able to relate to others, precise / meticulous (some fun stories about that - like redoing the lights on the Christmas tree 3 times one year because it wasn't perfect and other stories), quiet, well versed in politics and also international events, loved his dogs and gardening / yard work, just to name a few! I have the beautiful star Christmas tree topper that he made out of white and clear beads and safety pins.

We will miss him and spending time visiting him when we'd come to Valley City.

We are so grateful that he found Jesus as Savior and Lord! We are giving some money in memory of Dick to Nazarene Missions International.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to you. Prayers for comfort, peace, and strength while you grieve and take the next steps forward which can be very sad, tough and stressful.

In God's love,
Calvin and Kalynn Mayers
