“ I remember when Dave and Avis first came to Trinity. I was in Jr high or early high school. She was so encouraging and selfless. Always full of joyful. I lost touch with them when I went to college, but I will always remember the place in my heart that they held. I was blessed to reconnect with her last spring at a salad supper, and it was beautiful to see that she had not changed a bit. Her death is a reminder to me to thank people for the impact they have on our lives. We don't realize how much our conversations and encouragements mean to people, and I hope she knew just how special she was to so many people. May God bless her family as they mourn. I know her reunion with Jesus was a joyous one.

“ So sorry to hear about Avis' passing. I saw her at the end of September when I sang for church services at Trinity in Valley City. When I saw Avis, I always thought of David. They were so blessed to have found each other! I always appreciated Avis' friendly greeting and wonderful smile. Her days on earth have ended, but we can rest assured her Savior has taken her home. Blessed assurance!

“ We are so saddened by Avis's sudden death! We have many wonderful memories of Avis. She was so brave with her health issues with diabetes.

Avis worked hard caring for others in her work positions and responsibilities. She always made youth and elderly have a better day when she assisted them. Always upbeat and positive outlook. Avis loved all of her special friends, neighbors, church and family.

We appreciate your kind words of condolence and sympathy. They mean more to us than you can imagine. Thank you for your concern.
