“ I was so sorry to hear of Jean's passing. She was a special person and a favorite of mine when I was at the care center. I think she really loved her "foot spas" and I was glad I could provide them. She talked often of their farm and living on the river. My thoughts are with all of her family. I'm sure she will be greatly missed.

“ Your mother is never gone; just look into your heart and you will feel her love and presence in your life. I have many fond memories of Jean throughout my years. As a very young teacher, she helped me with the costumes for a high school play I was directing. When we met at her home to discuss the costumes, she gave me a wonderful history lesson! I loved the story about the Native Americans her father encountered along the Sheyenne River. When she became a resident at Sheyenne Care Center, she was a friend and table mate with my mom. She always greeted you with a warm smile. On February 25th we enjoyed a short visit. My sincere sympathies to the entire family. She will long be remembered as a wonderful life-long resident of Barnes County and perhaps some day a family member will put her memories and historical data into a book. Diane Pedersen Bjerke

“ I met Jean on the Fort Seward Wagon Train in the early 1970's. She was a remarkable and talented woman, in so many ways! Her passion for our state history, antiques, and quilting...we were so lucky that she shared that with us, and 1,000's of other people who came on the wagon train the years she was also there. I just regret that my problems, and busy schedule kept me from visiting her during her nursing home stay, I would of really liked to have seen her a few more times. Will have to wait now until we all get together at that campfire up yonder. Linda Deutscher

“ I had the honor of assisting Jean with crafts on the Ft. Seward Wagon Train. We had a marvelous friendship, and my sister Gail and I also looking forward to visiting Jean each year as we traveled from Iowa to the Dakotas for the pioneer experience. My favorite memory is from the first year 1989, while walking with Jean I said, "May I ask how old you are?" To which she said, "Yes", but then nothing more. When I said, "Well....?" Jean replied, "But that doesn't mean I am going to tell you!" We laughed, and I never did find out how old she was. But it made no difference, Jean and I had a wonderful friendship when every year, for one week, my heart joined hers on the Dakota prairie.

“ Miller Family:

We were so sad to hear of Jean's passing and will keep the Miller family in our prayers in the coming days. We knew Jean and Bill from the Fort Seward Wagon Train and have stopped by the farm and then the nursing home every year since Jean stopped coming on the ride. She was a sweet, caring, and wonderful person to know over the years. We first met her in around 1980 and we have been coming on the ride since then and like I said, we stopped and visited with Jean on the way. We will certainly miss the yearly visits we had with Jean.

God Bless,

“ My sympathy goes out to your family at this time, losing your Mother. She was one sweet lady! I haven't seen her in many years, but we were friends when our kids went to College High in elementary school. You have many wonderful memories, I know! Ardis Martin (Jon Wagars' Mom)
