“ This amazing lady will always hold a uniquely special place in our hearts. For me and my family our first encounter with Lillian was when she was the librarian for all of the grades at the Valley City Lab school. In college, I followed her inspiration and chose library science as my minor. During this time, she was the library director at VCSC. She was a model of grace and kindness. We were the Pedersen farm kids and she never forgot any of us. In later years when she saw in the news something about our children she quickly made the association and remembered to make a comment when we met. Our lifelong love for reading and books can be contributed in part to this great lady! We were blessed by knowing Lillian and now honor her memory. “ She was our special Aunt Lil to all of us nephews and nieces - you could always count on receiving a birthday card from her. We'll miss you very much sweet lady. Say "Hi" to my Dad, your brother, Walt, when you get there. Rest in peace knowing you were loved, very much, by a whole lot of people.

“ My mom, Edna Carlson Neibauer, formerly of Valley, now of Mentor, MN, has been friends with Lillian since college. They have continued to correspond via mail, email, and we always enjoyed having lunch with her each May when we made the trip to Valley to fix the family graves. This is a tough loss since Lillian was her last living friend in Valley City. We will miss her so much when we come next month, and will remember her always as such a nice, kind and classy lady!!Blessed be the memory of Lillian Jacobson!

“ Lillian was a special person my life. I first met her when I was in grade school and she was our librarian. Our lives continued to intersect when her brother Henry Langemo became my stepfather and again when I married Neil Jacobson her husband John's nephew (I always said she was my aunt x 2). Lillian was a kind and gentle lady and will be greatly missed.

“ Deepest sympathy to Lillian's family, friends and community. I was fortunate to get to know Lillian through her nephew Marshall; renting the apartment upstairs on Central Avenue while I taught out at North Central. I would also see her while attending church services at Our Saviours with my Grandmother DeLores Ust. Lillian always had time to visit and was interested in how things were going with me. She will be deeply missed by all the lives she touched. Blessed be her memory!

“ I reconnected with Lillian while my mother was a resident of Sheyenne Care Center. We stayed in touch after my mother's passing by way of e-mail, phone or personal visits whenever I returned to Valley City.

I am thankful for her friendship these past several years and will truly miss having her in my circle of friends.

God has welcomed a Christ-Bond Servant into His Loving Arms.

“ Lillian was a special lady in every way. Not only was she a Valley City State University icon, she was a dear friend. I would often seek her counsel and advice. She had unusual insight and common sense. She cared deeply and it showed. Few had more of a passion for VCSU than Lillian. Lillian loved the university and VCSU loved her. She was an inspiration and so much more. She set the bar high. She will be missed. Larry Robinson, Executive Director of University Advancement, VCSU.
