“ Miss you Grandma! We all keep you alive in conversations of old times; memories!

Just wish I could hug/squeeze/dance a jig with you right now... or just hug you knowing your scent will remain on my skin and clothes; oh how your loving sarcasm laughter is missed! Dad misses you so much too, we all do.

Grandma, I hope to come close to leaving a legacy as you have when I pass.

“ I must apologize. Earlier today we sent a message to Margaret's family. We said that Lars and Karen Larson were Charles' great-grandparents. Sam and Karen Larson were the great-grandparents. We still haven't quite figured out the connection between the Larson families. Would appreciate some help with this family history.

“ We winter in AZ and get the Times Record, so read that your mother has passed. Her parents were my great-grandparents. Esther Anderson Olson was my mother. Just wanted to send our condolences, as we remember Margaret and family when they lived in VC.

“ Our sincere sympathy, we will all miss Margaret and her generous smile at all times. She was the life of the party and always had a witty remark. She lived in our midst for many years in Osnabrock. God Bless her memory.

“ My goodness; how does a person even start saying words to you Grandma. You are cherished X10 by many friends and family. Wish I could find the right words to explain how much of a solid "rock" you were and will always remain to our/your family.

Classy, Hardworking, Generous, Loving Lady!!

“ We will miss you deeply, Margaret. You were the ray of sunshine at the Good Sam home. Whether you were playing piano(you could play two songs at once) or walking up and down the hallway with Rosie on your walker, you were such a jokester. Miss you

“ Great Grandma 'white'
Your resting place I will visit, place flowers there with care, but no one knows my heartache when I will have to turn and leave you there.
I bet your playing piano in heaven for everyone. or dancing and kicking your leg up and whistling.

I miss you and love you all the way to the moon and back.
