“ Steve, I was deeply saddened to hear of your mother’s passing. I was so lucky to have been able to spend a couple days with both her and your dad shortly after we married introducing my wife to Litchville, and two people I will always have the greatest admiration for. It was a year after they’d come to nw Illinois, to our wedding, and not long before losing your dad. I’d stayed in touch with your mom, and introduced our son to Litchville (including the museum, which I was given the keys to) this summer, but frustratingly couldn’t stop in Valley to visit. I’d spoken with your mom, every so-often, and last, late this summer, she remained so very sharp and optimistic. She was an incredible lady, who only made this world a better place, and I speak of both of your parents often, especially to our son, who’s 11 now. I miss them both greatly, neither will ever be replaced. You, Marina, and your entire family have my deepest sympathies. And wish we could have been with you during such a difficult time. What a remarkable life lived.

“ I hadn't really seen Mavis since her auction sale in Litchville until my Mom was ready to leave the farm and move to assisted living. We stopped at Legacy and Mavis was one of the first people we saw. She was on her way to Bingo, but graciously offered to let us look at her apartment to get an idea of what the rooms were like. We took her up on her offer and still got her to Bingo on time, she was serious about her Bingo!! Pre Covid times I would see her most every weekend when I visited Mom and we shared time at the jigsaw puzzle table and I was so happy to have that time with her. She was a sweet lady and I took to calling her "Sweetie". Post Covid I did not get to see her until about a month before her passing. I was at Legacy to visit Mom (Faye) and as I was leaving I saw Mavis. I looked around and didn't see any staff so with both of us suitably masked I gave her a hug and a pat on the hand and said "Hi Sweetie". She told me she was having some health issues and running out of energy and just couldn't walk very far without being tired out. She seemed very accepting of the fact that it was ok to be tired at age 97. I gave her one more quick hug and told her I loved her as I wasn't sure I would see her again. I just found out today she had passed away. She was a treasure to many people and I am so glad to have shared some time with her. She had the best smile and laugh!! She truly was a "Sweetie". “ We met Mavis in the early 70's when her daughter Marna, son-in-law Suresh and granddaughters Maia and Monica moved to Toledo, Ohio where we live. Over the years Mavis would spend time in Toledo with Marna celebrating birthdays, holidays and special occasions, and we would always spend time with her. When my mother died in 2002 Mavis told me I could call her 'Mom' and I often did. Her beautiful smile, sparkling eyes and very proper lady-like laugh could fill any room she was in with joy. I am sure that God was at the Gates of Heaven to welcome her home. We love you and will miss you.

“ My husband Darrell Maasjo worked for Strinden's as a Ford and John Deere mechanic for 8 yrs. We bought Alfred Strinden's house and Theron and Mavis lived 1 block south of us. Saw Mavis at the store often and other places in the small town of Litchville. Sympathy to her family and friends.

“ Sending my sincere sympathy to Mavis' family. A cherished memory is working with Mavis at Strinden's Hardware taking inventory in the Houseware department. We found some strange items, mostly parts for obsolete small kitchen appliances. Mavis would help by having me list these oddities on the inventory form as a “Thingamajig” or “Whatchamacallit”. We had many chuckles together during that time. Mavis was a kind, patient and fun woman to work for.

Blessings, Pam Hanson Matekovic (Ken and Dorie's daughter)

“ Thanks, Pam. Mom loved those years in the store. It makes me smile to think of the two of you giggling over the “thingamajigs” and “Whatchamacallits”! (I remember my days of doing inventory too, but I got stuck with nails and bolts and “stuff”! I think you had the better deal!)

“ Years ago on the farm we shopped Litchville ND .

I visited Stridens Hardware. The importance of a man out east don't know for sure though The Old Man never back then knew who he was Short wire glasses must have been his sons next to him?

The respects however now for the Stridens wife of the man that left town?

He a Republican educator not a Machinery salesman or farmer..

My regards
