

Tracey Ann Hill

January 6, 1965 - July 16, 2020

Tracey Ann Hill was the youngest of five daughters born to Earlis Jean (Harland) and William D. Hill on January 6, 1965 in Valley City, ND. She left her earthly home, surrounded by her family, to join her mother on July 16, 2020 at Sanford Health Fargo, ND. Tracey lived in Devils Lake, ND where she had many friends and caregivers that brightened her life.

Being born a Rubella (German measles) baby, Tracey met and overcame many challenges in her 55 years. She learned to sit up, walk, use sign language, read and write; all against the odds she was given at birth. Tracey even held a part-time job at McDonald's, probably fostering her love for a hamburger and pop.

Tracey grew up in the company of four older sisters until the age of four, when the difficult decision was made for her to live and receive services at the Grafton State School. At ten years old, she continued school at the North Dakota School for the Deaf in Devils Lake and graduated from the Special Studies Program in 1986. She looked forward to spending summers and holidays at home on the farm and summer camp at Camp Grassick. Camping, at one time, was a favorite pastime for her as she always signed for suitcase and camp. Tracey always looked forward to the annual "sisters' weekend" over the past 20 years where bowling, swimming, pumpkin carving, and hamburgers were always on the agenda. But, like her aunt Dorothy (Hill) Dunham always said, "I love you all individually, but together you're a bit much!"

Through the independent living program, Tracey found a roommate in Connie that evolved into a thirty plus year friendship without uttering a word to each other, both being nonverbal. Don't we all wish we could have that kind of relationship? Roommate, Theresa, eventually became part of this three-some family.

Tracey's very special family included her caregivers, medical staff, and many people within the Devils Lake community. She taught us things like perseverance, persistence, tenacity, trust, and unconditional love. Tracey had a stubborn streak (Harland-Hill genetics) and she wasn't going to do anything she didn't want to do without reward. All who knew and loved her, knew they better have a pop nearby.

Tracey is now free to rejoice her freedom from the recent health conditions that were beginning to affect her life. She leaves behind her father, Bill Hill; four sisters, Lynn Hill (Guy Harper), Lori Hill, Tami (Virgil) Kratz, and Christl (Alan) Durand; five nieces and nephews, Sadie Harper, Graham Harper, Markus Kratz, Danielle Durand, and Brendan Durand; along with her extended caregiver family and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

She joins her mother Earlis, who was waiting with open arms to welcome her special baby home.

We hope you remember Tracey as a woman full of surprises, from love to demanding determination, all the attributes we have come to love and will miss in our dear sister and daughter.

“ I just read Tracey's obituary in the Devils Lake Journal that we got today, the day after the funeral. So sorry for your loss. She held a special place in my heart. I was her dorm counselor at NDSD for several years and the picture accompanying her obituary just makes me smile remembering her.

“ Thanks Holly. We love to hear about Tracey's life apart from us, as we were growing up. We are having a visitation in Devils Lake on Fri from 2-4 at LRC. We would love to see you if you still live there. She holds a very special place in our hearts as well.

“ The Hill family Thanks God for sending you to us "in our hours of need." Your Professional tender loving care of Tracey in the hospital allowed us to peacefully help her make her journey to Mom's waiting arms in Heaven. " You are truly an Angel that walks among us."

“ As Jacque Farnham's father, I send my sincere condolences to Tracey's Family at this time of loss. I first knew Tracey as a young girl and helped formulate the program she attended at Grafton State School in the early 70's. She and Jacque had many times there, some good and some not so much fun; but they always tried and that was so important. They are some of the "original" group to start the deaf-blind multiply handicapped program in North Dakota and some of the pioneers in that field of education. They are all to be revered as program founders. Thanks for the opportunity to know her and her "bunkmates." Shalom. Bill Farnham, Another Parent who has walked the walk.

“ Thanks so much Bill. It was destiny that we met in AZ this past winter. I hope we can connect again. Your work to provide better lives for our sister/daughter and your daughter was so important and needed. Forever a trail blazer... Peace to you.
