“ I am so going to miss Uncle Al! I will never forget the first time my children met him. Natasha said, does he really talk like that? It was that strong Norwegian scent that I have always loved.

“ I will never forget going to visit Grandma and Grandpa in Enderlin... Every time we came he would say, "Well hello there, toots!" And process to offer us candy and cookies... He was always so so proud of everything I told him when we would catch up and visit. Every time we were getting ready to leave, he would pull out his wallet and give each of his grandkids a "Big George" ($1) and possibly some footsie rolls! He always was a big encourager for me and helped me finalize my decision in applying to work at John Deere. I have been there now for 10 years and my career is growing and Grandpa has always been so proud of it. RIP Grampa Al. You're always with me.

When I was a freshman in college my Dad would sneak me in to the Eagles to be his dance partner when his brothers would come back. He would help pick out an outfit for me in my dorm room to make me look "older". I never drank while I was there so he said he didn't see the problem with sneaking me in to dance. His favorite to dance with me was Waltz Across Texas...I believe when we are both in heaven..he will be waltzing me through the gates! I miss you so much Daddy.
