“ Sincere sympathy to Barb;s family ... especially Susan she had a smile for customers even as the 5 and 10 was closing.... only she could do that with such grace. Her connection to Red Cross is amazing.... an important part of her life and for the benefit of others. Others could be encouraged by her smile. May the memories you share be a blessing in the days to come and bring a measure of peace and comfort.

“ Barb was one of those rare people who had such a presence that it's hard to accept she is gone from this life. I'll cherish my memories with her, from buying the same outfit in junior high to driving around town, many times with "little" Susie between us. I also remember being astonished Barb knew how to cook early in high school. May God bless and comfort Paul and her whole family.

“ I was honored to know Barb through her being the in-law of my sister. I remember hugging her after my niece (her granddaughter) was stillborn and her whispering to me to take care of my sister and brother-in-law. I remember sharing birthday celebrations of my niece and nephew (her grandchildren) and all of us catching up and celebrating them. Barb was kind, generous, and giving of her time. She raised an amazing son whom I'm lucky to call a brother, which has given me three amazing nieces and nephew. She was a singular person with wit, humor, and friendliness to spare.

“ I met Barb in college. Her and I became friends and roommates for a while. She was always a dear friend. When Barb had her mind set on something she went after it. When she set her eyes on Paul he didn't have a chance. They had the kind of love only some people can wish for. Barb will be truly missed. Paul you and your family have my condolences. So sorry for your loss. But she will always be in your heart.

Bless you all

“ I will miss Barb ,but I know where she has gone. She had a Friend in Jesus. Barb was a busy lady! Her laughter was contagious! When I went through some life struggles, she would always remind me to stay positive. I was so amazed with her and Paul doing the Red Cross. They went everywhere! (I envied her a little bit). To see different parts of the U.S., wow, and to give help to others in desperate need. Her reward will be great in Heaven! She worked heartily, and her faith kept her so positive. When I moved to Valley City in 1995, Barb showed me places and sort of took me under her wings. We worked on the ambulance together. End of the year would be time for Us Girls to get together, we would play Pictionary. The pictures, and the way she attempted to figure out what a drawing really was, tended to be more hilarious than the game itself! I will miss her. As I write this, my mind is being flooded with good memories, and my eyes with tears. But I know she is in GOOD HANDS, and I believe someday I will see her again.

“ EVERYONE HAS A FRIEND DURING EACH STAGE OF LIFE. BUT ONLY LUCKY ONES HAVE THE SAME FRIEND IN ALL STAGES OF LIFE.

Barb was my friend for 57 years. I was so fortunate to have her in my life! We celebrated the good times in each other's lives and offered support during the difficult times. I have so many memories of our long friendship.

I am so pleased I had an opportunity to visit with her recently and reminisce about some of those good times.

My deepest sympathy to Paul, Carmen, Nicholas, and all her family!
