

Charles Bartlett

May 29, 1923 - September 25, 2011

Charles Walter Bartlett was born May 29, 1924 to Ethel Struble and Alvin Bartlett in Ireton, Iowa. He was raised in the Sioux Falls, SD area, the oldest of seven children. He entered the Merchant Marines in 1943 and was a communications officer, circumnavigating the globe before WWII was over. He and his first wife Ruth, and family moved to Valley City in 1959 where he worked for Enterprise Sales Company and later Paul Bjornson. He helped design and build many buildings in Valley City include Hilltop Gas station, Vining Oil and City Lights/Sky Lanes. He also designed and built some of the regions first shopping centers in Aberdeen and Mitchell, SD.

Charlie moved to the State of Washington in 1980 where his hobby of rock hounding became his business. He made one of a kind gold and silver jewelry. Using his skills as a gemologist and goldsmith, his works of art were placed on many fingers. He graced his family with beautiful examples of his work, which they will treasure forever. He retired to Valley City in 2005 to be close to his youngest daughter.

He was an avid fisherman and hunter in his younger days, filling the freezer with pheasant and salmon. His big fish story was catching a Ling cod, which, had he not been so stubborn and continued fishing, would have been a world record.

He is survived by his three children, Becky Bartlett (Allen Likely), Maple Valley, WA, Bill Bartlett (Kay Ruh), Bozeman MT, and Gail (Dennis) Pederson, Valley City, ND, six grandchildren and two great grandsons. He is also survived by 2 sisters, Pearl Gasparovich, Texas, Virginia (Norman) Anderson, Idaho, 3 brothers, Lloyd (Pat), New York, Milton, Colorado, and Jerry, Texas.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Robert.
There will be no funeral service as he requested.
