“ We are so sorry to read in today's Times-Record about Curt's death. He was a good friend to us and we liked him very much. Such a kind man. May he rest in peace.

My deepest sympathy, Beverly. I never knew your children but know that I have been thinking about you and how hard it must be to lose a child. I can't help thinking of Alderman School days when you and Curt were there when I was.

Much love,
Mary Heath

“ I was shocked when I heard of Butch's passing. I had just spoke with him on Saturday. He looked so healthy and happy. It is always so hard on those of us who are left behind. We know that Curt is home living in peace with God and yet we are so lost and hurt without him in our lives. I pray that God holds you close and comforts you in your time of grieve.
