“ Quite a life, quite a lady...

Widowed at a young age with 5 kids - she did a remarkable job raising them. We were so close to all our relatives on the Rude side. Dagny was truly a second mother to me and many of our cousins. I can still hear all the Rude sisters laughing and enjoying one another when we gathered at Grandma and Grandpa Rude's. The glue that held them together was something so unique and so special. Memories are dear.

She's loved by many. I'll miss her.##imported-begin##Louine Ness##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you my family during this time. I was just talking about Dagney the other night about how my brothers and I stayed with her when my mom and dad went to the Turkey convention or other functions. She always had a smile and a place for you in her heart. Miss being back in ND but my thoughts are with you always.

“ Dagny was a blessed woman, and a blessing to the many who knew her. Aunt Dagny was the last of a generation of family, her death signals an end yet a beginning. Part of her will always live in our memories, and part of her personality lives on in her descendant families. I am proud and pleased she was our family and friend.##imported-begin##Sharon (Haas) Nelson##imported-end##
