“ Robert Walker here from Honolulu, HI. Dan was a great person... always kind, caring, and easy to talk to. I hadn't seen him since high school, but wish our paths could have crossed, as we grew older. My heart and prayers go out to Dan's family. RIP, dearest Dan!

“ Heartfelt condolences and blessings to the Reberg family. For years I have shared with my family the adventures (and some misadventures) with Dan growing up in K-12 at KPS, working at Clausen Springs, fishing, hunting, camping, and general goofing around. I hope all who knew Dan with cherish the memories and keep them alive by sharing with others. Thanks for touching so many lives, Dan.

“ My deepest sympathies and condolences to Danny's family. I remember him as a cute little kid, always on the run and always busy with something. It is hard and sad to lose good people and Danny was a very good person.

“ My sympathies to the Reberg family. I have many fond memories of Dan. From Going to school from kindergarten thru high school and working with Dan every day for the Gabels and Going out together and having fun. I will never forget Dan and I am glad he was my friend. I wish we hadn't drifted apart and I could have told him that. I pray that Dan can find peace in a better place and I hope his memory will comfort the Reberg family.
