“ To Doug's Family,

Doug and I grew up neighbors to each other in ND. His Mom and mine were together in the Church Women of Elm River Church in Galesburg, where both Doug and I went to school. He was one year ahead of me, but we were all in the same assembly. There was a time when Doug and his family would come by to pick up my sister and I for school as we were before school buses.

Later when he had moved back to Page, his sons and ours played basketball together on the Page High School team. I have known Doug most of my life, and extend sympathy to All of you especially his sons, and Myrna and family. Myrna, I think you are a relative to my Aunt, Jeanette Warner who lived in Valley City until she passed away.

Our love and prayers to all of you.

From Marie Warner Satrom and her husband, Carl.

“ Myrna and Family....I am so sorry for your loss. People always tell me God doesn't give us more than we can handle.....through life and loss I believe it's more like God will help us handle what we are given. May God be holding each of you who morn in the palm of his hand.
