“ Judy and Family: Having just met Duane most recently though the John Birch Society, knowing what a dear man he was, I would like to convey my deepest condolences. He modeled for those us in the battle for our Country what grace, kindness and persistence meant as we worked so hard to restore the nation to its great heritage. He lived those founding principles and inspired us by his life. I will miss his warm welcome to North Dakota and my prayers and condolences go out to you all. God blessings on your family as you remember your dear husband, father and grandfather.

“ Judy and family,

I am thinking of you all during this time.

My first memory of Duane is of him reading this quote at a scouting event:

"A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove. But the world may be different, because I was important in the life of a boy"
Forest Witcraft

That was Duane. He cared deeply about the scouts he worked with. I can be certain that the world is a better place because of the difference he made in the lives of the many boys he led over the years. And I am so thankful for the role he played in my son, Mikey's life.

He will be missed.
