I always remember him as an easy going ,easy to talk to man.When he sang it came from the heart. (Reminded me of George Beverly Shea) Very patient man, especially when he had to teach 20 new city folk how to pull 15,000 chickens from a cage and put them in a semi.And then come back and put the new ones in!! :) He enjoyed life and family! May God bless the extended family in the time.

“ Pastor Foster let us know. We will always remember Earl singing "Leaving On My Mind"..."This old house I'm living in is needing repairs.... " You can look it up online. That was almost 21 years ago that we heard him at the Dazey Church, but I can hear it clearly inside; he chose it often and meant it all. Such a blessing. May you all be comforted.
