She attended school at the Moore Township country school, and later her brother (Ed) made sure she graduated from Enderlin High School in 1939.

She met and Married Vincent E Zacharias on February 1, 1942, in a Parsonage of Rural Kathryn. They settled on the farm near Eastedge, North Dakota. They worked on the farm and through their married life, they raised turkeys, milked cows, made meals, and raised four sons.

For 17 years Edith and Vincent would take off in their 1978 Lincoln Continental to spend the winter in Lufkin, Texas. During the last few years Edith was able to check a few things off her bucket list, like going to Red Hawks game and taking a short ride in a 4-seater airplane.

“ What a lovely lady and a great friend. She and my mom and Lorene Lee would sing and my mom just love to do that. I went to see her in September and when I talked about her singing she remembered things about me as a baby (78 years ago). Please know you have Roger's and my sympathy.
