

Eugene Ten Clay

August 17, 1929 - April 14, 2012

Eugene Lawrence Ten Clay was born on August 17, 1929 to Henry and Minnie (Renskers) Ten Clay in Westfield, ND. He was the youngest of 15 children.

On January 27, 1977 he married Norma Hill at First Christian Church in Greenville, IL. She died January 1, 2001 and is buried in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Eugene worked many years for Raphael Draperies and Fabrics. He worked mainly on auditorium stage curtains and draperies. When he moved to Greenville, he established his own company, Ten Clay's Curtains and Draperies.

Norma and Eugene enjoyed traveling and took many cruises together.

He died in the Circle of Life Cottage at the Sheyenne Care Center in Valley City on April 14, 2012. Eugene is survived by a brother, Elsworth Ten Clay of Zeeland, MI; 3 sisters-in-law, Mrs. Ralph (Jane) Ten Clay, Mrs. Albert (Arlene) Ten Clay, and Mrs. Charles (Ruth) Ten Clay; and many nieces and nephews.

“ I was fortunate to meet Eugene while he was a resident of the Cottage at the Care Center. He sat at the same dining table as my uncle. During a visit with my uncle, Eugene asked me to sit beside him to visit for a while. We had a very nice discussion. He was such a gentle man. I am sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Angie Martin##imported-end##
