Tribute Wall

“ I'm sorry for the loss of your mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Irene was a very loving, patient person who was always ready to help people. She was always happy to see you when you stopped and had a big hug for you when you left. She loved the holidays with all the family there, all the food she would prepare and the birthday cakes she would make for the grandkids. The last few weeks were so hard for all of you but I think she knew you all were there with her to the end even though she couldn't tell you so. She will be so missed by those of us who knew her but she is with the Lord now and smiling down on all of you.

You've made her proud!

I'm glad to have had such a wonderful mother-in-law.
