“ Dear Kelsey and family,

While I was fortunate to know Jamie for only a short time, his devotion to his family, work, community, students and VCSU was always readily apparent. He was a true leader. I enjoyed all of our conversations and hallway talks. He will be greatly missed by all. Sincerest condolences to you all at this difficult time. Wishing you peace in the days ahead.

“ Kelsey and family,

Jamie and I had adjoining offices at VCSU for several years prior to my retirement. We always had great conversations about family, our disciplines, and VCSU sports. Many times our personal conversations took place in the middle of the "basement" hallway of McFarland with lots of laughter and Jamie with a twinkle in his eye. Jamie certainly helped many students achieve their educational goals and he will surely be missed at VCSU as I know his family misses him dearly.

I am sorry I will not be able to attend Jamie's Celebration of Life service as I just had surgery today and will not be able to travel.

Please accept Beve's and My deepest sympathy in this time of sorrow.

“ I was president when VCSU hired Jamie. Although his service there was way too brief, he could well join the annals of memorable professors for decades to come. My impression: solid, reliable, conscientious, creative, and way more fun than any of those terms connote. Heartfelt condolences to family and friends. VCSU will miss him, too.
