“ Nita's service was just right .... the message was by a pastor who knew her well. We were thankful to be there and renew friendship with Deb, Scott, and Kathy and see their families. Our families go back a long ways to Dairy Queen days and exhibiting cattle at the ND State Dairy Show. Being the 2nd chosen Dairy Princess was indeed a very big deal .... glad that she held on to that part of her life. Our sincere sympathy to all !

“ Nita was such a neat and caring person. Some of my earliest memories are being at the fair and seeing her and Auntie Gladys with the Dairy princesses. The stories she had of living on the farm were amazing and entertaining. Rest in Peace dear Lady. Love you. LeeAnn Gilbertson
