“ *Loretta and Ken,
I found the notice in the Bismarck Tribune and want to extend my deepest sympathy to you on the death of Loretta's mother. My grandpa Rex lived to 100 and we have to hope the same long life will bless us. However, it is sad when a generation's era ends. Loretta - we marched side-by-side in the VCSC marching band with our saxophones. Ken - I have admired your political career from afar. The best to you in coming years.##imported-begin##Vicki Lindemann Voskuil##imported-end##*

“ What a beautiful lady! My condolences to you Curtis and Loretta and families. Remember I grew up across the pasture from your farm and often wonder where your paths took you. Your parents were wonderful neighbors as were you. I'd love to hear from you. I live in Moorhead.##imported-begin##Mary Ann (Riedman) Nord##imported-end##
