“ The first Brandvold family reunion I attended was in the 1950’s and I was a youngster. Les called me the little twerp, but was kind to me and showed me around the farm in Kathryn. Whenever we got together in later years he was always kind and jovial, but he stopped calling me the little twerp when I grew to be taller than him. I miss his smile and caring and “oh gosh, you know, you betcha”.
