Lloyd was born on April 1, 1924, to Severt and Lenora (Larson) Anderson in Valley City, ND. He grew up on the family farm near Valley City, attended Hobart Township rural grade school. During his senior year he was elected homecoming king and in 1943 he graduated from Valley City High School with honors. Following graduation, he worked on the family farm until he enrolled in the US Army in 1946. He served, achieving the rank of sergeant, until he was honorably discharged in 1948. Lloyd returned to the family farm where he joined his father in the farming operation. Lloyd married the love of his life, Erna H. Koebernick on December 22, 1951 in Valley City, ND. They resided on the farm and were blessed with 6 children, 3 boys and 3 girls; David, Bruce, Glenn, Lori, Doreen and Julie. They were devastated when in 1975 their oldest son, David Lloyd was killed in an accident. Along with farming, Lloyd sold seed for many years, winning numerous awards for his sales and service. In the 1980's he started selling Wishek Discs, which he continued to sell until 2014. His love of family and his strong work ethics drew his sons to work alongside him, Bruce in farming and Glenn with the disc business. In 2011 they moved to Valley City and in December of 2018 they became residents of the Sheyenne Care Center in Valley City.

Lloyd served on several boards throughout his life; Hobart Township, Cass County Electric Co-operative, Federal Land Bank, Our Saviors Lutheran Church Council, to name a few. He enjoyed and taught many family members to hunt and fish and the love for the outdoors. He was an avid Vikings, Twins and Bison fan, but he especially enjoyed spending time with and traveling with family and friends.

Lloyd is remembered for his love for his family, his strong faith, strong work ethics, his honesty, loyalty and love of his country. The way he lived his life, his love and care for his wife created a legacy that will be passed down for generations to come.

Lloyd is survived by his beloved wife of 67 years, Erna, two sons; Bruce (Kathy) Anderson of Valley City, Glenn (Tina) Anderson of Bismarck, three daughters; Lori (Wally) Peter of Mandan, Doreen (Mike) Ryan of Valley City, Julie (Chad) Roeder of Thornton, CO, 12 grandchildren; Darin (Julia) Anderson, Darci (Jamie) Bratsch, Matthew (Emilee) Anderson, Carrie (Joe) Gress, Jonathon Anderson, Nathan Anderson, Jeremy (Alycia) Peter, Jesse (Sarah Gubbels) Peter, Cassie (Ryan) Foster, Callie (Justin) Schiermeister, Calahan (Katie) Ryan, Casey Ryan, 17 Great Grandchildren and one sister, Joyce Potter of New Ulm, MN and numerous nieces and nephews.

Thanks so much Duane for taking the time to write such kind words. Your Dad was always baffled why I would put sugar on my fresh tomatoes instead of salt & pepper! Loved his smile and laugh! Fond memories.

“ I'll always remember Lloyd's smile and greetings each time we met or were together. As a Cass County Electric Board member Lloyd had a great deal of interest in the newest technology being utilized by the cooperative and always wanted to learn more. I grew up in Valley City, so we had many conversations Valley City related, as well as anything related to the newest technology in our industry.

“ We will always remember Lloyd's energy and his friendly greeting whenever we attended church services at Our Savior's Lutheran Church. Erna, too, displayed the same warm welcoming spirit. Shelley will always remember when both Lloyd and Erna extended a lunch invitation at their farm during a time when Shelley devoted time to her mother, a resident at Sheyenne Care Center.

Throughout the years, Lloyd and Erna were always mindful to invite families to enjoy a bountiful helping of corn from their harvest. It was the best!

Although we will miss seeing Lloyd on our next trip to Valley City, we envision Lloyd in a heavenly home, free and content and at peace, “ Thinking of the family at this sad time, Lloyd was special to so many people around Valley City, he raised some of the best sweet corn and welcomed people to come and pick what they could use, it was the best corn! Sending prayers and sympathy to his family, sending hugs to you, Doreen, I know how much you loved your Father and he will be missed .
