“ I am so sorry for your loss. May it help you and your family to know that you have the greastest person ever to give you the needed strength to continue on, God. He invite you as Jeremiah 29:12 say: And you will call to me and come to me and I will listen. Please go to him and taste and see that he will give you the comfort you need in your time of need.

“ I am Lloyds son in law John Sandygren, Married to Lisa, We live out west in the State of Washington, On the occasions that Lloyd and Lola would come visit us I would go for drives and show them things about Eastern Washington, One trip we took was to the steep hilly area we call the Palouse, Lloyd couldn't believe that they actually farmed there because the hillsides were so steep, Many times he would say Lola, Lola look how steep that is , Then we drove up to the top of Stepto butte and I realized that Lloyd truly loved the flatness of the Mid west I always enjoyed our drives we took when Lisa and I would go back to North Dakota Lloyds farming knowledge always impressed me and since we don't grow corn or soybeans I asked lots of questions and I think he enjoyed showing me around. I really enjoyed seeing his cousin Clarence tractor collection, Lloyd truly was a strong Christian Man and he is enjoying the treasures of Heaven now.

“ Dear Lisa and family - It is never easy to lose a parent especially when it seems just not that long ago that you lost your mom. Your dad passed away peacefully so that is a blessing, and he now is with your mom. Although we didn't know him, knowing you, Lisa gives us a pretty good idea of what kind of man he was.....like you, we're sure he was thoughtful, kind, loving, spiritual, genuine and gave selflessly to others. You will continue to make him proud.

May you and your family cherish wonderful memories for many years to come.

We love you -

“ Heartfelt sympathy to Lloyd's family. I know you will remember his laughter and feel his absence. I know much he loved his family and I hope you are comforted by that and the wonderful memories of your lives with him and your mother. My earliest memories of Lloyd were when he was one of the "big cousins" keeping an eye on all of us "little kids" while our parents gathered at the bedside of our grandfather. When I last saw him at a family reunion in 2013, he helped me as we were both grieving the loss of our spouses.
