She grew up on a farm west of Sibley, ND and attended Sibley Trail School until the eighth grade. She then went to school in Dazey where she graduated in 1949. Lois was very active in the Dazey community. She was a member of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church where she taught Sunday school, a lifelong member of Sibley Trail Homemakers and was the club's secretary. Lois would also help out serving food when Dazey had their big Labor Day beef and buffalo barbeque. She was an avid gardener and had a huge garden every year. Lois liked to bowl as did Keith and they both were on a couple of different leagues at Stri-King Lanes in Hannaford, ND bowling well into their 80's. Lois and Keith also put in time keeping Sunnyside Cemetery up where her folks are buried.

Lois is survived by her three sons, Kevin (Rebecca) Muncy, Hannaford, ND; Bruce (Debra) Muncy, Dazey, Burton Muncy, Dazey; a daughter Lori (Rich) Jensen, Aberdeen, SD; nine grandchildren, Nicholas Muncy, Tabitha Muncy, Bo Muncy, Ryder Muncy, Shaylee Muncy, Dustin (Amanda) Kamphuis, Heather (Jon) Berg, Alexandra Zumbaum, and Cassandra Zumbaum; and five great-grandchildren, Kinley Kamphuis, Taylee Kamphuis, Brielle Berg, Kennedy Berg, and Jade Muncy; and her sisters, Lorraine Hammer, Vancouver, WA and Luella Schwartz, Vancouver, WA.

“ So sorry for your loss of Lois so soon after losing Keith

Rory Hunter & Family - December 12, 2020 at 08:25 AM

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Lois' passing. She & Keith were our closest neighbors on the farm. I used to babysit for them when they went bowling. I'm glad they still enjoyed bowling in their later years. I remember when they were trying to potty train Burton. He would sit on the potty & somehow scoot out to the kitchen from the bathroom. Sorry, Burton, but it's a fun memory that I'll never forget. I know your mom was so frustrated. 😊 She was a kind, hard working person & good neighbor.
