“ When I think of Lola, my most vivid memories are of about 40 years ago, when she and LaDonna and Lisa would visit Uncle Neil and Aunt Henrietta on the farm. I can still see her grin. I am sorry to hear of your loss, and look forward to seeing her again in heaven.###imported-begin###Stan Burgers###imported-end##

“ Aunt Lola always had a warm smile and a kind word. I always treasured the hand created cards she sent on memorable occasions. She was a truly gifted, loving and caring woman. Even though we lived quite a distance apart, the time spent together was always filled with laughter and smiles. I'm sorry I didn't get to come and say goodbye. May God comfort you Lloyd, kids and grandkids, with the knowledge that Lola is celebrating Christmas right along with you. Smiling big and bright like she always did.###imported-begin###Tammy (Swier) Barg###imported-end##

“ When I think of Aunt Lola I think of the Valentines Day cards that she sent us every year with jokes inside. She sent them every year--we love them and the glitter. She was into embellishing cards when there weren't any embellished.##imported-begin##Laura Swier Kotelman##imported-end##
