

Lynn Nelson

June 28, 1916 - July 26, 2009

Lynn Gerald Nelson was born on June 28, 1916 in Kathryn, ND, the son of Andrew and Hagar (Anderson) Nelson. He grew up on the farm in the Sheyenne River Valley and attended grade school in Nelson Township. Lynn graduated from Valley City High School. After his schooling, he farmed with his brothers. He lived on the same farm his entire life.

He was an all around outdoorsman. He was an avid hunter and enjoyed snowmobiling, but his passion was fishing. Most Sunday afternoons, he could be found at the Kathryn Dam catching fish where no one else seemed to be able to. He also liked to go into Kathryn and find a good game of pinochle. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Kathryn, the Sons of Norway, and a past board member of the Kathryn elevator.

Lynn is survived by his nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; 3 brothers, William, Alf, and Nanfred; and a sister, Myrtle Olson.
