

Lynn Franklin Van Dyke

October 31, 1958 - June 4, 2020

The funeral service for Lynn Franklin Van Dyke, 61, Ypsilanti, ND will be 10:30 am Monday, June 8, at Marion School Gymnasium, Marion, ND. Visitation will be 9 am to 10:30 am at school on Monday. Burial will be in the North Marion Cemetery, Marion. He died unexpectedly on the family farm on Thursday, June 4.

Lynn Franklin Van Dyke was born on October 31, 1958 in Jamestown, ND, the son of Frank G. and Joyce (Miedema) Van Dyke. Lynn graduated from Montpelier High School in 1976. He attended NDSCS in Wahpeton, ND for two years and graduated with a degree in diesel mechanics. Lynn married the love of his life, Pamela Radtke, on June 16, 1984. Lynn's passion was always to farm. They made their home on the Harold Miedema Farm, where sons Chad and Cory were raised and became Lynn's right-hand men. In 1998, the family moved to the Ernest Miedema "Come & Stay" farm.

These are "the facts." But Lynn was so much more. He was always ready with a joke or a story. He was a deep thinker who was unwilling to accept "easy answers." He understood that being human can be difficult and he did not pass judgment on the many human shortcomings. He talked a lot (often interrupting!) and his mind never stopped thinking, reflecting and going full speed. He acknowledged and felt other people's pain in a profound way and had a hard time accepting it because he so wished it "could be fixed." But if you were close to him, you knew he cared deeply. Lynn probably could have "visited" with a fence post but he felt genuine interest in people of all kinds.

One of Lynn's favorite sayings was "Carry On." We are heartbroken that we must carry on without him, but we believe he is at peace and we will cherish many wonderful memories of him, in our hearts, forever.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank G. and Joyce Van Dyke and by his mother-in-law, Gertrude Radtke.

Lynn is survived by his wife, Pamela and sons, Chad (Jill) of rural Glenfield, ND and Cory (Kayla) and grandson Zander, age 2 of rural Marion, ND. He is also survived by 4 siblings, Judy (Rog) Punt of Woodbury, MN, Kaylene (Verlyn) Hemmen of Eagan, MN, Curtis (Katy) Van Dyke of Valley City, ND and Keith (Lisa) Van Dyke of Maple Grove, MN; his father-in-law, Wally Radtke of St Paul, MN; in-laws, Rick (Sue) Radtke, Big Lake, MN and Cheryl (Jim) Shaffer, Newhall, IA; along with many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and many good friends.

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the Oliver-Nathan Funeral Chapel, Valley City, ND. An online guestbook is available at www.oliver-nathanchapel.com

“ I was so sorry to hear of Lynn's passing. I knew Lynn as a child when my parents would go on a trip and I would stay with Aunt Joyce and Uncle Frank on the farm. It was such a busy and fun place to be with all the kids and animals and hay loft. I never knew Lynn as an adult. I enjoyed reading about him though and wish I had known him better. He was family and his loss touches me. For all the family, please accept my heartfelt condolences. A special acknowledgement to Judy and Kay who I know well. Beth Siderius Geense

“ I will always remember Lynn as a customer but mostly as a friend. When he would come in for parts he would let us know that things cost too much, then when he was halfway to the door, he would turn around and have to tell us a joke or two. Then he would grin and walk out the door. Bless his memory. Will miss him

“ Dear Pam and Family,
Jackie and I are deeply sorry for your loss.
We loved Lynn as a brother and were always moved by his experiences, jokes and love of others. We knew we would be friends as soon as we met him.

“ My heart is breaking for you Pam, Chad and Cory. I rem when your family was there for us when we lost Chuck. I wish I could attend his celebration of life, but I'm in Az. My good memories are overflowing, and all w his grin 😊 from way back in VBS, bible camp and couples club to videos of our boys in grade school and church Christmas programs... thank u for the great writing in his obituary. I could relate to all w his kind personality. Pass on those good traits he left u - with your children Chad and Cory! Let the peace of Christ be with you 🙏

“ Lynn farmed only a couple miles from my family's farm (now my brother lives on the homestead). Growing up I always enjoyed talking with Lynn & enjoyed his humor. He formerly attended the country church where I attended growing up. Lynn is smiling in heaven today!!! But PRAYING for over Lynn's precious family.

“ My sincere condolences to family and friends of Lynn. May he rest in the arms of angels and our heavenly father Jesus Christ. I Always appreciated your sense of humour Lynn. In the short time we were around each other past 45 years I truly always enjoyed your company. I still have good child hood memories of you and your brothers jumping the road on motorcycles on the family farm. God Bless!

“ Lynn was a beloved 2nd cousin. Our families went to North Marion church together and we spent many Sunday's together in Sunday School and Youth Group together. He liked to tease me and others. It was like having another brother. I pray for peace and comfort for Pam and the entire Van Dyke family.

He loved Bill's flatbread and each time we talked to him would ask if Bill was "still making it" and tell him how good it was. His smile and eye twinkle could make our day!

My deepest sympathy to the family of Lynn. I remember him with a big smile, always ready for a good time. I served as a "mother's helper" when Joyce brought Lynn home from the hospital and I thought he was the absolute cutest and most wonderful baby boy ever! (as did his family!!) Though now we mourn his loss, Lynn is at peace. May God comfort you in your time of deep sorrow as you wait the time when you will see him again.

Thinking of all the Van Dyke family during this very sad time. The loss of someone we love never leaves us, but special memories help you cope. Cathy Cumber Martin to my Van Dyke cousins:

Just like Grandma Van Dyke found peace listening to "Songs in the Night" I would like to share with you the last verse from In Christ Alone.

*No guilt in life, no fear in death,
This is the power of Christ in me.
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
Can ever pluck me from His hand.
Till He returns or calls me home
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand.*

*As you endure this temporary separation from Lynn, may you stand strong with the unfailing love of God the Father, the scandalous beauty of Christ dying for our sins, and the comfort of the Holy Spirit.
Hallelujah! What a Savior! All our love from Him who loved us first.*
