“ All my sympathy to Mae's family. I remember as a kid, growing up playing with you and always enjoyed the times that our mothers spent having coffee and chatting while we were all "doing what kids did back then." Mae was a special friend to my mother and to us. She was a great lady and will be missed. Prayers to comfort you.

“ Grandma would always share the story of the little mouse in her house. She was making cheese burgers for lunch one day. Grandma went down to change the laundry around and all of a sudden, there was NO more cheese. She called out into the house, 'who's the little mouse that was in my kitchen?' Well, I couldn't resist the cheese. So, we had plain hamburger's that day. Grandma, she had an amazing spirit... she worked hard, always welcomed you into her home and loved her family like none other. I would spend a lot of summer's at their house in Valley City and those memories will always be precious to me. You too, will be in my 'every day.' Butterfly Kisses!!

“ Grandma Mae was full of love and smiles. She was always in the kitchen baking or cooking something yummy, or croqueting up a store making her adorable holiday decorations! One of my best memories of my Grandma Mae is from when I was little. I remember sitting at her feet at the home in Valley. She had just made her amazing chex mix and of course had an ice cream bucket full just for me! She would give me a piece of the plastic canvas and a scissor and had me create a design. Then she would let me create and sew right along with her. I always had so much fun with her and learned so much. I will miss her always.

“ Aunt Mae was a VERY good cook. My Granddaughters loved her rolls and chicken soup. The last time I came to Valley City and Shannan couldnt her request was some chicken soup from Great Great Aunt Mae. Aunt Mae made a special order which Im happy to say made it back to Spokane where we all enjoyed her wonderful chicken soup with homemade noodles!!!Love Carol Artis
