“ Margaret was one of my grade school teachers at a one room country school. She was a very caring patient teacher who made sure you minded, understood and grasped her instruction. Margaret made home made pies for us to enjoy if every student achieved 100% on our Friday spelling tests. This was an excellent motivator for those of us who enjoyed pie. May the Grace of God comfort Margaret's family.

“ I met Margaret a few years ago when she was living at Pioneer House at Elim in Fargo. My Grandma Alice, mentioned she had known Margaret for years, apparently her husband Fred was my grandfather's cousin. After my grandma had passed away, I stopped by a few times to learn more about my grandparents and Margaret shared many precious things. She was so very kind and had such a sharp memory.
