“ I am so sad to hear of this loss to the Regner family and to the Griswold community. Marge was a wonderful neighbor to my family. I remember how warmly she always welcomed me into her home when I came to visit on my bike, or came for a sleep-over (those are some really fun memories!). I also remember her kind words when my Dad died, and how she was so happy to show me the updated pictures of her special family. My heart goes out to Earl, Robin, Steve, Carol, Donna, and to all of the rest of the extended family.

“ I will miss Marge bringing Avon books to work and seeing her at auction sales. She was always dressed so sharp and colorful - she always looked so beautiful! I will also miss seeing her at school activities. What a great lady and hard worker she was. Sending you all my prayers, hugs and support.

“ Your parents and mine have been life-long friends. Memories of Marge knocking on the door for Avon, going over to your house as the neighbors gathered to play cards and always having something good to eat when stopping by unannounced on my bike. As we are adults and we come back home, it's always comforting to see Marge & Earl sitting in the next pew near my parents, never far away, and always there with open arms with a hug & a hand shake. It's been one year since my mom passed, she is now again, neighbors with Marge in heaven. It's a peaceful feeling to know they are in God's hands.

We wish you comfort & peace during the difficult time.

“ Eileen Sailer considered Marjorie to be one of her best friends. They talked daily or everyother day when mom lived on the farm. When she moved to Jamestown she continued to call Marjorie or Marjorie would call her. I remember growing up and going to visit with mom and dad. Your mom was a great lady with a kindness that is sometimes hard to find. She always had a smile and a kind word for everyone she met.

She will be the star that twinkles in the sky for her family. She will always remain in your hearts and memories.

Her family are in our thoughts and prayers.
