“ I will truly miss Millie. The time we were able to spend together and all the laughs we shared will forever be remembered. She loved when i would bring my phone to her apt so we could look at old pictures of what VC used to be like. And the stories about her scooping ice cream. And we would laugh about the snapchat pictures i would take and she couldn't believe the technology. She was so much fun and just brought so much joy to everyone. Bless you all, she is a beautiful angel.
