“ It breaks my heart to know what a family goes through at a loss like this. I met Nicci in ala-teen many years ago and always was happy to see her smiling face. We later were in AA together and we did other things we wouldn't tell our mothers about. lol and our gradma's lived in Dazey so we seen eachother from time to time. It was a blessing to see her in recovery from addiction. She was doing so good. The HOPE she had and the desire she had and the enthusiasim about her new clean and sober life was cool to see. she will be missed dearly.##imported-begin##Teresa Dahl Freitas##imported-end##

“ Loren, Zoe and family. I'm still in shock at the news of Nicci's death. We've been through so much together- happy and difficult. I will miss her so much. I'll remember her joy at the wedding, your precious little girl's birth and baptism, and just knowing you loved her. That's what made her life meaningful, and even now her life is full and rich with no more pain. She will always love you both, til you're together again. “ I'm sorry for the loss your family has suffered. Nicci was one of the nice people I remember from my hometown. I was lucky enough to run into her a couple years ago and catch up little. It was a good visit, but she was at work. I had hoped that we could catch up again later sometime. She will be missed. A piece of home is now gone. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Paul MacArthur##imported-end##
