“ I too have such fond memories of Nora, and of fun times in her home. Patsy, I spent so many happy hours with you, and always felt welcomed by your mom.

Yes she was fun, hospitable, a kind and lovely mom, and a good cook. What a blessing that she enjoyed many years of good health, enjoying family and friends. May the Lord comfort you, her family in your loss.

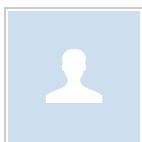

We thank God for His gift of Jesus and the eternal life we have through Him.

in His love,

Carol###imported-begin##Carol Peterson Redmann###imported-end##

So many wonderful memories. I must have been at your home nearly everyday when we were kids. She was always happy and welcoming and would bandage my skinned knees along with yours. Wishing I was with you to celebrate the remarkable Nora. What a treat to have known her.

And how is it that I didn't know until, today, that your grandmother and my grandfather were both Knutson's (sp?) from Norway. Lots of Knutson's over there, but still..... You'd think it would have come up in conversation sometime in the last 68 years!

*Much love and blessings to all,
