A Memorial Service for Norma J. Anderson, 91, Fargo, ND will be held 10:30 AM, Friday, November 29, 2024, at New Live Assembly in Valley City. Burial will follow the funeral at Fairview Cemetery in Sanborn, ND. She passed away peacefully on Tuesday, November 12, 2024, at Bethany on University.

Norma was born in Valley City, ND on September 06, 1933 to Edward and Agnes Artis. While working in Valley City she met the love of her life, Edward Rambow. They were married on November 28, 1955. Edward and Norma raised 3 daughters, Nancy, Susan and Cheri. Upon Edward Rambow's death in 1990, she moved into Hawley, MN to be near to her daughters.

While living in Hawley she met Edward W. Anderson and they were married on May 1, 1997. Once they were married, she moved into Fargo, ND.

Norma was a member of the Assembly of God Church in Valley City where she enjoyed singing and serving the Lord in various ways. She was also a lifetime member of the Western Minnesota Steam Thrasher's Reunion.

There were many things that Norma enjoyed playing games, baking, reading, quilting, and spending time with close friends. However, what she loved most was spending time with her three daughters.

She is survived by her daughters Nancy (Gary) Ronsberg of Hawley, MN, Susan (Paul) Maly of Fargo, and Cheri (Steve) Merrill of Hawley; six grandchildren: Michael, Dustin, Matthew, Shawn, Christopher, and Jeramy and five great grandchildren: Taylin, Stetson, Cathrine, Edward, and Phillip.

Norma was preceded in death by her parents Edward and Agnes Artis, two husband's Edward Rambow and Edward Anderson, sister Nana, and one grandchild Tyler.
