“ Dear family of Norm,
A fixture in a large surrounding area of friends, neighbors, and family has left you. The void is hard to fill, yet his genial presence will be always be felt. It was a pleasure to know him and have him serve our sale.

May God bless and keep all of you.

“ I met Norm years ago at an Auction Sale. At that time I asked him about catering a meal to a musical where I was teaching. He said he would give it a try. He also told me there was nothing he couldn't do. Norm catered my musicals for the next several years. It was always in the winter when he came, rain, sleet or snow I could always count on great "HOT" food when he arrived. The evening hasn't been the same since he retired and sold the business. He was an excellent cook, a good business man and most importantly a "Great Guy" God Bless his memory.
