She loved working on cars and going to car shows with Jason and their daughters. She also enjoyed fishing, canoeing, camping, deer hunting, playing darts, shopping, and her special country drives with her best friend, Jane Spaulding.

She leaves behind her husband, Jason Walker; daughters, Abby age 11 and Brianna age 9; her parents, Allen and Renee Aarseth; brother, Jason (Peggy) Aarseth and their children, Dylan and Payton; sisters Amy Perdue and her children, Samantha, Jacob (Shelby), Jailee and Teanna and Tammy (Steve) Brantley; grandmother, Edna Maasjo, mother and father-in-law, Everett and Michelle Walker; sister-in-law, Heidi Gould; brother-in-law Josh (Jeannie) Walker and their children Cash and Trinity; uncles Eldon (Shari) Maasjo and family; Ray Aarseth and Loren Aarseth and their families; aunt Susan (Steve) Hanson and family; and more extended family.

“ I had not seen Sarah in a very long time but my husband Trevor and I worked with Sarah (and her mom) at the Sheyenne Care Center when we were in highschool. As a young CNA I really looked up to Sarah for her kindness and compassion to the residents that she cared for and her kindness and patience with me as a new employee. She was a great mentor and for that I am truly grateful because that job led to a lifelong career in healthcare. Unfortunately it seems we never get a chance to thank people for the impact they made on our lives until they are gone. Thank you Sarah. To Sarah's family my deepest sympathy.

“ Sara.... I can't believe you're gone. The girls and Jason miss you so much. I always told you how great of a mother you were and you did such an amazing job teaching those girls how to be compassionate , thoughtful, and all around just beautiful human beings. I called you my sister and I love you and miss you like crazy. I hope you are at peace now . I tell the girls that you are watching them from heaven and whenever the sun shines that it's you smiling down on us. I love you sister.
