“ I had the priviledge of knowing Steve for only a short time during my senior year at Valley City. Good thing he was small, because he would not have fit into my Datsun 510 on our way home from the State Tourney in Fargo, only seven guys in the car. You know who you are. Anyhow his life touched mine in a very special way especially when you are the new kid in town. If you read this remember that our lives are made up of moments and to appreciate the miracle of each moment.

“ To Steve's family: I am so sorry for your loss, and have remembered Steve since high school days. He was such a nice guy! It's a shame that he couldn't have gotten help with his problem before this had to happen. I lost someone close to me, in much the same way, so I can relate to what Steve was going thru. May God be with him now and give him peace.....and to all of you, too! I will never forget him. Please accept my deepest condolences. “ A few years back I purchased a CD with a song on it called Harmon Killebrew by Jeff Arundel. Every time I listen to the song I can't help thinking of Steve and the many good times and laughs I shared with him. He was a good friend and will be missed. "Harmon Killebrew did you ever get my letter? Ten pages of clear blue sky green diamonds and days gone by..."

“ To Steve's family, our thoughts and prayers are with you. When I think back to our days of growing up in VC, memories of "bone" always come rushing back, no one knew major league baseball trivia like Steve. I think of days spent in the Sheyenne river and at the "Old Green Ballpark". God's speed Bone!###imported-begin##Jeff and Michelle Hilborn###imported-end##

“ To the family of Steve Malsam, Jim and I are both sadden of Steve's passing. I myself was a classmate of Steve and have very fond memories of him in the classroom setting and out! Bonehead was exceptionally smart, witting and intelligent. He truly enjoyed life! Jim's favorite memory of Bonehead was wearing the Viking outfit at the Metropolitan Stadium. We love, Steve!###imported-begin##Jim and Becky Ukestad###imported-end##

“ I really can't help but smile when I think of Steve, and all the wonderful experiences we shared in our youth. After more than 40 years that hasn't changed, and I doubt it ever will. My thoughts are with Steve, his family, and his many friends.

“ To the family of Steve,

Our sincere sympathies in your loss of Steve. I always considered him a good friend through our junior high and high school years - and beyond. He was kind - 'just' a nice guy. Psalm 61:2 says, "When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the Rock that is higher than I." That Rock is Jesus Christ. God's comfort to you, Tom and Jean Dunham “ Clara & rest of Steve's family, you are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time of Steve's passing. Steve was a friend for many years and we had many good fun filled times together. Not only was Steve a friend but he was also an inspiration; his quick wit, intelligence, kindness to others and sports trivia excellence and many talents. I can still hear him singing "blowing in the wind" by Bob Dylan.

Steve, you will be missed by many and I will see you again someday.##imported-begin##Dan Aasmundstad##imported-end##

“ We spent many great times with Steve while he lived in Arizona. He was a good friend, and we're very saddened to hear of his passing. Although we haven't kept in touch with him over the past several years, we think about him often.

We will always remember his "never say die" attitude, and his penchant for wrestling with anything willing to challenge him, including large dogs.

We wish him peace and happiness in the afterlife.##imported-begin##Jo & Sam Loehr##imported-end##

“ To Steve's family
Please know that you are in my prayers today and in the days ahead. It is difficult to see a loved one suffer and die but I pray that believing that Steve is no longer in pain will bring you comfort and peace. Memories of Steve in high school, or Bonehead, as I remember him, make me smile. He was always so kind to me. Hold your memories close and let them comfort you in your sorrow. For memories are always with us to treasure forever. God Be With You Now.
