“ I was saddened to hear of Travis' recent illness and passing. I always enjoyed seeing him when I 'made it out to the shop' and our brief 'visits'. A great co-worker, conscientious and reliable. He certainly will be missed.

“ When Travis was old enough to sit outside of his home in Dickey, as a little-bitty-boy, I would wave at him. I could be on a motorcycle, in a car, pickup, grain truck, tractor, 18 wheeler, or just walking by...he NEVER waved back, NEVER smiled, nothing but a grumpy-grump. I asked dad, "Why does little Travis NEVER smile at me?" Dad laughed and said, "He smiles just like you!"
