“ Bud has been a wonderful friend to me and my late husband, Terry. It is sad to think he won't be calling to "rattle my chain", as he always said. This page is not long enough to relate all of the fond memories. Those memories will keep Bud with us until we meet again to make more. Hard working hands at rest. God only takes the best.

“ Bud and Marge were my neighbors and very good friends. Bud was a talented man and continued to remodel the house they lived in until his death. We were honored to have Bud and his wife Marge be our youngest daughter's Godparents. One cannot think of one without the other. They are back together after a very brief separation watching over Rod and Rene' until they are all back together again.
Gosh, you will be missed.

“ The Beils and the Jorissens have been neighbors "forever" in Valley City, I think. Maybe 40 years ago I was down with a bad back but I also had a pre-schooler who needed attention. Bud solved the issue by taking Brett with him in the tractor cab and farmed for the day. What little boy would have loved that experience! Bud was one very capable guy! Rest in peace, Bud. Pat Beil
