

Zoey Jean Anderson

September 15, 2018 - April 30, 2020

Zoey Jean Anderson on April 30, 2020 made that last ride to the country up there. Zoey is the 1.5 year old daughter of William and Kayla Anderson of Kathryn, ND. She is their first born treasure. Zoey is mommy's angel and daddy's little girl. She is a loving big sister to her baby brother, Willie and loved to help mom take care of him.

Zoey enjoyed spending her time outdoors with her family where she would play with her family's dogs and cats, ride horse and dirt bike, and playing in the mud. She enjoyed playing inside with her little brother where she would cuddle with him before stealing his bottle and running away. Zoey enjoyed family movie night either watching Moana, Frozen 2, Barnyard, or one of the Descendants. She was always on the go and a sassy little spitfire as soon as she could crawl. She loved bright colors, unicorns, and dinosaurs. Zoey was a fun little girl who could climb anything and was an expert at pacifier hoarding. She had the world in her hands and was ready to conquer all.

A Private Family Memorial Service will be held May 5th, 2020 at Preston Lutheran Church in Fort Ransom, ND. Memorial contributions can be sent to an account at Bank Forward in Valley City, ND. Zoey captured the heart of all as soon as they met her, being drawn by her gorgeous blue eyes and mischievous smile. She loved to give everyone a hug hello and a wave good bye.

“ Dear Will & Kayla,

We were so very sorry to hear about Zoey. Such a sad occurrence for your family and your extended family -- so tragic for everyone. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of sadness, too.

The last time we saw you was at your wedding. Our son Baron and I were there -- Uncle Don was sick. We were at your Grandma Olive's last summer when Maggie and Cierra were back. Hope to see you this summer.

We'll be sending a sympathy card and memorial.

Love, Lola (Will's great-great aunt) and Don (his great-great uncle)
